

Dear Young Ambassadors,

Congratulations! Your first Young Ambassador challenge was a huge success! Young people from across the UK celebrated 1000 days to go until the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games. Well done for all your hard work!

To keep the momentum going, we would like to set you your second challenge....

Good Luck!

To celebrate this monumental occasion we would like to set you a challenge - bring the spirit of the Olympic Winter and Paralympic Winter Games into your school and create a poster to promote the Winter Games!

Competition!

Take a photograph of your poster and be in with a chance to win!

Prizes

The best 5 entries will be part of an interactive map that will be displayed on the Get Set website.

The top 3 entries will win London 2012 goodie bags!

Rules

You must send us:

- your full name and the name of the school you attend.
- a photograph of your poster.

- a brief description of the poster (no more than 100 words).

Entries must be received by Monday 22 March.

Here are some ideas to get you started....

Why not:

- research some Olympic Winter and Paralympic Winter sports and include some facts and figures in your poster?
- include a schedule of the sports events?
- include an inspirational story from the Olympic Winter or Paralympic Winter Games?

Be as creative and original as you can, but most importantly, have fun!

Don't forget, there are tonnes of great resources available on Get Set, including the Get Set for the Winter Games image bank, montage film and competition!

Things to consider:

- How does your poster reflect the Olympic and Paralympic Values?
- How you will promote the Olympic Winter and Paralympic Winter Games in your poster?
- What impact will the poster have?
- Is it sustainable? Think about James Cracknell's message to Young Ambassadors at the conferences - you have a responsibility to consider the impact your activity has on the environment.
- Think about how you can best showcase your poster in your photo to create a really exciting shot!
- The poster must be your own work - please do not use any other brands or images
