Working in Partnership – connecting through Sport

We are about to enter a golden decade of sport in the United Kingdom which will inspire an entire generation of participants in many different sports. Never has there been a more exciting time for PE and School Sport, with a dynamic ambition to offer young people five hours of PE and sport per week by 2010.

The Youth Sport Trust leads and manages the support for the 501 schools and Academies with a sports specialism in England. Membership offers Sports Colleges a range of added value benefits to inspire learning and participation.

Membership is run in partnership with The Specialist Schools and Academies Trust and gives Sports Colleges access to a full range of programmes and activities.

Access unique events, resources and publications

A full range of benefits and opportunities are available throughout the membership year and include:
