Dexterity — Grasp and Release

INCLUSIVE PE ///

Content outline
This activity aims to develop grasp, transfer and release. This will demonstrate different ways grasp and release can be used to transfer an object.
- Dexterity
- Grasp; Pincer and palmer grasp
- Grasp and release using a table-top ramp
- Position of wrist when lifting an object

Learning intention
Physical:
- To grasp, move and release an object

Personal:
- To recognise the use of objects to impact our wider environment

Verbal Instruction / Feedback:
- Give each task specific feedback; “That’s great lifting”
- Praise individual tasks; “Fantastic holding”
- Use clear language when giving instructions – use single words where possible; “Hold”, “move”, “lift”, “let go”

Space
- Increase the distance away from the item so that the young person must reach to grasp it to make the activities more difficult
- Decrease the distance away from the item to make the activities easier

Equipment
- Change the items being used to develop the same skill in different contexts
- Larger / heavier items can be used to increase the difficulty of the task
- Use smaller items to improve fine finger dexterity – like pasta
- Use a table-top ramp to create a high-impact activity, such as table-top bowling

Task
- Challenge the young person to transfer the items faster to further promote dexterity
- Change the task to reflect the young person’s preferences to aid their motivation
- Which items does the young person find more interesting?
- Use clear and simple language within instructions – try to use single words where possible

People
- Gradually reduce the physical support given to complete each activity
- Introduce another person at the side, or across the table to pass the items to
