ий

GLASGOW
St Mungo’s High School
St Mungo’s School are appealing to their pupils’ funny bone... through running a comedy and talent show. But that’s not all! They are setting up cross-school involvement by running inclusive sports clubs, revolving tennis, tennis and cricket. If anyone’s hungry, the Cupcake Club will be on hand to provide handmade cakes.

DERBYSHIRE
Highfields School
The Highfields’ Young Ambassadors want to bring their Unified teams together to discuss ways of breaking down barriers and creating the multi-skills clubs, which pupils are working hard to ensure that all students can take part.

GULLINGHAM
Gillingham School
Gillingham School’s Young Ambassadors have been working tirelessly with pupils from other schools to encourage students from across twelve schools. They are bringing their school more inclusive awareness with a few familiar faces! The school is working hard to ensure that all students can take part in new exciting activities, including Unified football.

SERCEPTION
Woodlands Special School
Specialist Sports College
Specialist Sports College is a huge difference to the confidence of the students involved. You can read more about the students involved. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper.

PLYMOUTH
Woodlands Special School
Woodlands Special School is a huge difference to the confidence of the students involved. You can read more about the students involved. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper.

ABERDEEN
Bridge of Don Academy
Bridge of Don Academy is a huge difference to the confidence of the students involved. You can read more about the students involved. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper.

DURHAM
Durham Trinity School and Sports College and Riverside Comprehensive School
Durham Trinity and Durham Johnston are working together to bring sport to some of the hardest to reach areas of their school. The clubs have been introduced to pupils using a range of inclusive sports and the Friends Buddy System to allow for barriers to be broken down, building understanding between pupils across the whole school.

TOULSTON
Tadcaster Grammar
Europe, watch out! Tadcaster Grammar’s Young Ambassadors have been jet setting across Germany for the Special Olympics European Leadership Summit in Frankfurt! During the summit, they discussed their ideas for Play Unified... the school’s new inclusive initiative! The committee will be used to make decisions around activities in school, to ensure that all pupils are a part of the whole school community.

ROTHESAY
Aston Academy
The Aston Academy Young Ambassadors are working tirelessly with pupils from across twelve schools. They are empowering and inclusively bringing their school more inclusive awareness with a few familiar faces! The school is working hard to ensure that all students can take part in new exciting activities, including Unified Sports, cooking and Play Unified Bell activities.

PLYMOUTH
Five Acres Wood School
Five Acres Wood is a huge difference to the confidence of the students involved. You can read more about the students involved. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper.

KENT
Falmouth School
Falmouth School is a huge difference to the confidence of the students involved. You can read more about the students involved. The journalists of the Unified Newspaper.

BERKSHIRE
Maidenhead School
Maidenhead School’s Young Ambassadors have been working tirelessly with pupils from across twelve schools. They are bringing their school more inclusive awareness with a few familiar faces! The school is working hard to ensure that all students can take part in new exciting activities, including Unified Football.